

MARCH PAST FOR CELEBRATING THE CENTENARY OF MAHATMA GANDHI VISITING CUTTACK

DATE: 23.03.2021

On 23rd March 1921, Mahatma arrived in Odisha for the first time and had addressed a historic gathering on the river bed of Kathajodi in Cuttack. To mark this memorable occasion, the NCC team of Shailabala women's College along with the CTO Chinmayee Mallik and 1(O) Girls Battalion participated in the March Past for grand celebrations on 23rd March 2021. The March started from Station Road to Ahimsa Gandhi Park, which was inaugurated on the same day. This centenary celebration inspired the people of Odisha. It inspired the youth, on the ideals, and principles of Mahatma, and above all his mantra of Ahimsa.

Outcome: It taught discipline, coordination and respect for the National leaders of Freedom Movement to the cadets.
